- 4.3 Applications not submitted during the Application Period or not completed in accordance with these Conditions of Entry will not be valid applications and will not be considered by the panel.

5 How the winning application will be selected

5.1 This is a Fellowship based on skill not chance.

5.2 The successful applicant will be selected as follows:

- (a) There will be only one Fellowship awarded. It cannot be shared. The winning applicant will be decided by a selection panel of three panellists which will be made up of persons holding the following positions, or persons who in UNSW's opinion are their successors or hold equivalent positions or their nominee:
 - Artistic Chair of Australia Ensemble, or nominee of the Australia Ensemble.
 - Invited external Composition expert.
 - Head of Culture of UNSW, or nominee.
- (b) UNSW may prescribe rules for the conduct of meetings and the making of decisions by the selection panel. Applications will be assessed in terms of:
 - i. musical creativity, originality, and personality.
 - ii. the demonstration of a high level of craft, technical competence; care and professionalism in the presentation of Scores in the portfolio.

- (c) The panel will select a shortlist of up to five applicants, who will be required to respond to some short questions relating to their experience and suitability for the Fellowship.
 - (d) The panel will select one applicant from the shortlist as recipient of the Fellowship, with a stipend of $AUD10000.00 if an applicant is deemed suitable.
- 5.3 The selection panel's decision is final, and no correspondence will be entered into.

6 Fellowship Details

- 6.1 The recipient of the Fellowship will receive a stipend of $AUD10000.00, and the opportunity to compose two (2) works across the year inclusive of one piece for a small ensemble and one piece for a large ensemble, as determined by UNSW.
- 6.2 The Emerging Composer will also be eligible for mentoring sessions with leading composers and member/s of the Australia Ensemble. The Emerging Composer's works will feature in at least one workshop that will be made available to current UNSW students, UNSW staff and members of the public.
- 6.3 Successful fellowship recipients who are interstate will be able to apply for financial support for travel and accommodation during periods of mentoring, workshops and performances of their work relating to the Fellowship.
- 6.4 The applicants selected for the shortlist will be notified by 22 April 2022, and the successful 2022-23 Layton Emerging Composer Fellowship recipient will be decided and announced by Friday 20 May 2022. The successful applicant will be notified via the contact details provided and their name, together with their short biography will be published on the UNSW Australia Music Performance Unit website

7 Limitation of liability

- 7.1 In the case of the intervention of any outside act, circumstances or event which prevents or significantly hinders UNSW Australia's ability to proceed with the Fellowship on the dates and in the manner described in these Conditions of Entry, including but not limited to vandalism, power failures, natural disasters, acts of God, civil unrest, strike, war, or act of terrorism, UNSW Australia may in its absolute discretion cancel the Fellowship and UNSW Australia will have no liability to any applicant or any other person as a result of such cancellation.
- 7.2 UNSW Australia will not be liable for any misadventure, accident, loss or claim (including but not limited to a claim for infringement of any copyright, trademark or other intellectual property right, or any claim of a similar nature) that may occur as a result of an applicant's submission into the Fellowship.
